

Greetings Parents,

It has been our joy as your baby's new teacher to care for them and help them experience God's love from each one of us. We are now coming into that time of year that we have the chance to celebrate the love of God. We are preparing for next year's enrollment, so we will be also our beginning our Fall Registration this month. We are looking forward to doing our Original Artwork fundraiser as well. Day One will be closed on the 18th for our parent teacher conferences. Rodeo Day will be on the 27th and Go Texan Week will be during the week of 25th – 28th. Please feel free to dress your babies in their Rodeo gear during this week.
